Wedding Etiquette & Duties

Etiquette dictates that normally the Top Table has a set 'seating format', as illustrated below. However, the remaining relatives and friends are normally seated as you desire, with close relatives nearer the top table.

Front of the Top Table

Bridesmaid; Groom's Mother; Bride's Father; Bride; Groom; Brides's Mother; Groom's Father; Chief Bridesmaid; Best Man

Prior to dessert service, the Master of Ceremony will announce the cutting of the cake, which will be served along with the Champagne/Sparkling Wine in preparation for the toasts & speeches.

The toasts will normally take place in the following order:-

1. The Bride & Groom, This toast is usually proposed by the FATHER of the Bride or Close Relative or Friend of the Family.
2. The Bridesmaids, Proposed by the BRIDEGROOM, following his response to the first toast.
3. Response to the Bridegroom on behalf of the Bridesmaids. This will be proposed by the BEST MAN, whilst congratulating the 'Happy Couple'. He may also read messages and selected cards of good wishes.

Wedding Etiquette & Duties

The Bride & Groom

The Bride selects the type of service, decides on her dress and the Bridesmaids' attire, whilst the Bridegroom selects the Best Man and Ushers. He also purchases the ring and pays the church fees. He may also buy presents for the Bridesmaids, Best Man and Ushers as a gesture for their help. He buys flowers for his Bride, for the Bride's Mother, the Bridesmaids, and buttonholes for himself and the Best Man. He arranges and pays for transport for the Best Man and himself to travel to the ceremony and for the Bride and himself to travel to the reception.

The Best Man

The Best Man is the Bridegroom's right hand man, who keeps the ring and ensures the Bridegroom gets to the church on time. He pays the church fees on behalf of the Groom. He checks the transportation for all the guests to the reception and that any travel arrangements for the honeymoon are in order. At the reception, it is the Best Man's honour to read any congratulatory messages and, of course, make a speech.

The Chief Bridesmaid

The Chief Bridesmaid assists the Bride to dress, holds the bouquet during the ceremony and organises other Bridesmaids.

The Bride's Father

The Father gives the Bride away and receives guests at the reception. Traditionally he pays for the wedding dress, Bridesmaids' dresses, cars, photographs, church and reception flowers, invitations & press announcements (if any). In this day and age, often the costs are split with the Groom's family.

The Brides Mother

The Bride's Mother is traditionally in charge of all the proceedings. She decides on the guest list, together with the Bridegroom's mother and the venue for the reception. She handles any catering arrangements and ensures the wedding cake is ready. After the Wedding Ceremony, the Bride's mother and father, together with the Bride and Bridegroom and his parents, greet the guests at the Wedding Reception.
